NOTE

BY special arrangement with the American Art Association, facilities have been extended to me whereby my present extensive collection of the Ukiyoe paintings, color prints, and illustrated books, together with a large selection of modern paintings by prominent Japanese artists of to-day, will be shown for public inspection.

In planning this exhibition of works by the masters of the schools of Ukiyoe, Kano, and Shijō, I have taken particular pains in choosing those having finer quality, beauty of colors, desirable subjects, and designs of greater rarity.

As to the merits of paintings and prints offered for sale, it is not necessary to comment, as I am sure that they will be judged by the connoisseurs and the public as they deserve.

In cataloguing this collection, no elaboration of description has been attempted, a careful inspection being necessary for proper appreciation.

I also desire to call particular attention to a large number of the original drawings of the late Hokusai included in this collection. These I obtained from a pupil of Hokusai. In many of these, rough as they are, the excellent quality in free-hand drawing and vigor cannot fail to be recognized.

Of the illustrated books, there are examples by prominent book illustrators of the schools of Kano, Shijō, and Ukiyoe, giving valuable suggestions and inspiration to students and lovers of Japanese art.

Among the prints there are a few exceedingly fine examples by the celebrated artist Kaigetsudo, whose works are widely admired, not only by the Japanese, but by European and American collectors.

A number of fine old screens are included. Among them are examples of the great masters, Kōyetsu, Sotatsu, Korin, Kenzan, Yeitoku, Matahei, Moronobu, and Morikage.

Mr. Tozo Takayanagi, of New York, has compiled this catalogue.

COLORED WOOD ENGRAVINGS

(Nishikiye)

In making this collection of Japanese color-prints, Mr. Bunshichi Kobayashi has taken particular pains in choosing only those that have beauty of harmonious colorings and subjects of greater rarity than heretofore brought to this country.

Special attention is called to several fine examples by Kaigetsudo, one of the most powerful and striking painters, whose works are becoming quite scarce, not only in Japan, but both in Europe and America.
